

Quest Global tops in engg services

Bangalore, April 16

Quest Global has been ranked the world's No.1 among 122 engineering service organisations by The Black Book of Outsourcing 2009, the company said in a release here. Quest's customers – who have stayed with it in the past year – top-ranked it on criteria such as trust, breadth of offerings, client types, delivery excellence, customisation, reliability, brand image/ communication, vendor viability and support. The diversified services vendor was measured for operational excellence, design, mechanical, manufacturing, engineering and plant automation and enterprise asset management services. Mr Doug Brown, co-author of The Black Book of Outsourcing, said the Bangalore ESO “was overwhelmingly praised by customers in the most important attributes clients look for in an outsourcing partner.” – Our Bureau

(This article was published in the Business Line print edition dated April 17, 2010)

Get more of your favourite news delivered to your inbox

Please enter your email. Thank You.
Newsletter has been successfully subscribed.